Administration (SIRVA)

Jessica Olins, Maglio Christopher & Toale, PA, Washington, DC, for petitioner.

Mollie Danielle Gorney, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC, for respondent.

RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

On March 21, 2019, Jeffrey Crosse filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that he received an influenza (“flu”) vaccine on November 22, 2017, and subsequently suffered left shoulder injuries. Petition at 1-3. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On May 13, 2020, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, Respondent states that “petitioner has satisfied the criteria set forth in the revised Vaccine Injury Table and the Qualifications and Aids to Interpretation, which affords petitioners a presumption of causation if onset of SIRVA occurs within forty-eight hours after receipt of a seasonal flu vaccination and there is no apparent alternative cause.” Id. at 5-6. Respondent further agrees that the medical records demonstrate that Petitioner has experienced the residual effects of his SIRVA for more than six months, and that therefore, Petitioner has satisfied all legal prerequisites for compensation under the Act. Id. at 6.

In view of Respondent’s position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
